

QTS is the data storage hub at JA BizTown. All businesses will pay a data storage fee to QTS. QTS employees ensure the data center stays secure and functional. QTS also sells power banks and offers a password and energy game.

Citizens visiting the grocery store will have the chance to purchase a snack or flower arrangement and participate in a grocery game.

KCNSC is the JA BizTown manufacturing hub. A Product Engineer, Technician, and Inspector will work together to manufacture yo-yos to sell to JA BizTown consumers.

Children's Mercy is the official wellness partner in JA BizTown. Citizens can visit Children's Mercy for a wellness check or attend a yoga class. A Researcher will conduct science experiments and the Community Health Worker ensures JA BizTown is safe and accessible for all.

JE Dunn gives JA BizTown students a glimpse into the world of construction. JE Dunn employees work with other JA BizTown businesses to create new, innovative projects with large Lego bricks and offer a building challenge to citizens.

CommunityAmerica is the official financial institution of JA BizTown. Employees assist JA BizTown citizens in depositing their paychecks, opening savings accounts and making transactions.

The Royals storefront offers students the chance to see careers in the sports world. KC Royals employees will sell Royals ticket vouchers that students can then take to attend a REAL Royals game! Student employees will also work to obtain corporate sponsorships from other businesses.

Hallmark is a retail storefront in JA BizTown. They offer cards, pencils, erasers and notepads for purchase. Card Creators will design personalized cards for JA BizTown citizens.

EIC (or RSM) shows JA BizTown citizens the impact that small businesses and entrepreneurship have on the economy. Student entrepreneurs will use their creative minds and innovative thinking to run a small business.

Panasonic ENERGY

Panasonic Energy's storefront will open in early 2026. Stay tuned for more information!

U.G. City Hall is the heart of JA BizTown. Here, the mayor keeps the town running, the election commissioner runs a town vote, the building official ensures businesses are safe and the animal services officer captures stray animals for adoption. City Hall also oversees tax collection and manages the post office.

SelectQuote provides insurance to JA BizTown citizens and businesses. SelectQuote insurance advisors will educate students and business leaders about the different types of insurance and why it is important to have insurance.

Meta is a technology-based business in JA BizTown. In Meta, students can learn about data centers and have the chance to interact with Meta technology. JA BizTown citizens will also be able to purchase Meta swag and play a social media safety game.

Evergy is the official utility sponsor of JA BizTown. Evergy will provide electricity to each business while teaching JA BizTown citizens about the importance of renewable energy sources and energy conservation. JA BizTown citizens will get to use a kilowatt meter to see how much energy common household items consume.

United Way helps JA BizTown students create meaningful change in their communities. Students can do several things when they visit United Way. They can also purchase stickers or give a donation to something they care about and be entered into a drawing to win a book.

MARINER

Mariner Wealth Advisors offers wealth management services to JA BizTown citizens. JA BizTown citizens can learn about investing and its impact by doing an activity that shows them how their money can grow over time.

The KC Zoo and Aquarium is in the middle of JA BizTown. JA BizTown citizens can view an animal exhibit, learn about animal conservation and purchase zoo merchandise.

Joe's KC offers students the chance to get restaurant experience. Students working at Joe's KC will sell snacks to their peers (lemonade and popcorn) and have the chance to run their own catering company.